

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Monday night Pig Roasts debut at Weekapaug Inn for the season

WEEKAPAUG, RI – June 29, 2016 - Every Monday evening through Labor Day, guests are invited to dine outside at a family-style pig roast, featuring slow-roasted pork, seasonal fare and complimentary beer, wine and soda. Guests can enjoy the peaceful, sunset views of Quonnie Pond, while enjoying classic lawn games with family and friends. The evening finishes with s'mores at the fire pit. Those looking for a fun, laid-back barbeque to celebrate the 4th of July should consider the Independence Day pig roast for a patriotic twist on a classic summer event. The pig roasts begin at 5:30 p.m. and end at 10:00 p.m. The event is $85 per person, $40 per child (ages 4-12) and children under age 3 are free (plus tax and gratuity).

The dates for pig roasts are as follows:

Monday, July 4th (Independence Day Pig Roast)

Monday, July 11

Monday, July 18

Monday, July 25

Monday, August 1

Monday, August 8

Monday, August 15

About Weekapaug Inn

Weekapaug Inn, one of New England's last great family resorts, re-opened its doors in October 2012. Originally built in 1899, the Inn is located in the peaceful community of Weekapaug, Rhode Island. Guests enjoy sweeping views of Quonochontaug Pond, and the Atlantic just beyond, from the Inn's 31 guest rooms, including four two-bedroom Signature Suites. Amenities include farm-to-table fine and casual dining, a fitness center and outdoor pool, indoor and outdoor boutique event and meeting space, and access to a private community beach. Managed by sister property the Ocean House, guests can enjoy the amenities and activities of both properties, making the Weekapaug Inn ideal for business retreats, family vacations and weekend escapes.
