

DETAILS

OMG!

MEET THE KID
WHO COULD BE BIGGER THAN BIEBER

—
THE WEIRDEST WAY TO GET AHEAD
AT THE OFFICE

GET YOUR BODY BEACH-READY

THE LATEST
JUICE CRAZE

THE HOTTEST
NEW WORKOUT

THE SECRET
TO DROPPING
THOSE LAST
5 POUNDS

—
THE COMPLETE
GUIDE TO MODERN SUMMER STYLE

Breakfast in America
The Morning Meal Gets a Makeover

THE NEW SUPERMAN

HENRY CAVILL

Turn This Issue Over for the Details Grooming Guide

K&T

KNOW & TELL TRAVEL

The Montauk
Beach House

THE INN CROWD

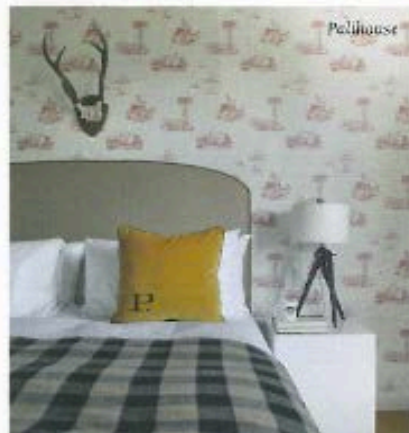

STYLISH AND CHIC, THESE NEW SEASIDE PROPERTIES ARE FAST BECOMING THE TOAST OF THE COASTS.

ADRIFT HOTEL LONG BEACH, WASHINGTON

Among the many charms of this stylishly spare, reclaimed-wood-furnished eco-inn are the ever-present owners, Brady and Tiffany Turner, who know the best running trails, secret spots for digging up razor clams, and local bands to check out. BEST BEACH: Dead Man's Cove, six miles south, is a driftwood-strewn crescent framed by the plunging green forest of Cape Disappointment State Park.

CAPTAIN FAIRFIELD INN KENNEBUNKPORT, MAINE

The vibe at this nine-room Federalist mansion on Maine's coast is like a Hillfiger ad come to life. The Lucite desks, afternoon cookie hour, and rainfall showers add notes of contemporary luxury. BEST BEACH: The ruggedly beautiful tide-pool-laced Goose Rocks Beach, 15 minutes north, is a quiet stretch of waterfront along Goosefare Bay.

PaliHouse

EL ENCANTO SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA

This former retreat for silver-screen royalty like Clark Gable and Betsy Lamarr now hosts modern-day L.A. exiles in California Craftsman and Spanish Colonial Revival bungalows with a full-service spa. BEST BEACH: Local hangout Leadbetter Beach, a 15-minute drive, has an easy break that's ideal for paddleboarders and novice surfers.

INN AT THE PRESIDIO SAN FRANCISCO

In the sylvan core of the former Presidio army base above San Francisco Bay, this meticulously restored 22-room Georgian Revival building is the setting for nightly wine-and-cheese receptions as fire pits glow in the wooded back yard. BEST BEACH: Ten minutes down Lincoln Boulevard, Baker Beach is the favorite of the betrothed (for dramatic views) and the unclothed (for the swimsuit-optional policy on the northern end).

THE MONTAUK BEACH HOUSE MONTAUK, NEW YORK

Cast-iron tubs and chenille beanbags furnish the bedrooms at this hip retrofit of the tiki-themed Ronjo Motel. No. 50, the on-site café, offers Stumptown coffee and locally baked pastries near the pool, where members and guests lounge on Japanese-style teak daybeds. BEST BEACH: Five minutes east on Montauk Highway, a new two-and-a-half-mile trail through 200 acres of protected marshland ends at secluded Amsterdam Beach.

PALIHOUSE SANTA MONICA, CALIFORNIA

With an inspired clash of Moorish rooftops and Malibu tile, this 36-room lodge occupies a Spanish Colonial Revival villa and comes outfitted with European linens and Dean & DeLuca-curated minibars. BEST BEACH: Beyond the bustling carnival of the Santa Monica Pier, the clean, sleepy Will Rogers State Beach sits at the end of a bucolic state park.

WEEKAPAUG INN WEEKAPAUG, RHODE ISLAND

This reborn 31-room Cape Cod-style property conjures an era of simpler pleasures like shuffleboard and afternoon G&Ts alongside more modern amenities like iPads and yoga. BEST BEACH: A boardwalk leads guests over the dunes to mansion-lined Weekapaug Beach.

MODERN ENGLISH: London's Best Boutique-Hotel Openings

The city that kick-started the boutique-hotel trend is welcoming stylish new renovations all over town. The MADLER BOND (madrler.com) updates a 17th-century mansion in Soho Square with 78 well-appointed rooms; the 99-room KENYA HOTEL (kenyahotel.com) occupies a restored Victorian building in South Kensington. The ME LONDON HOTEL (mellondon.com), on the site of a 19th-century Covent Garden theater, boasts a future-chic lobby and stunning panoramic views of the city.

BY ADAM ERACE