TREASURED EXPERIENCES AND FIVE-STAR HOSPITALITY AT THE SHORE

FROM INTIMATE GATHERINGS
TO LARGE CONFERENCES,
Ocean House and Weekapaug Inn offer distinctive event spaces, elegant accommodations, state-of-the-art facilities and unrivaled services to make every event a success.

As Forbes Five-Star properties, and members of the world-renowned Relais & Châteaux association. Ocean House and Weekapaug Inn focus on unique,
intensely personal guest experiences.

Strategically located less than three hours' drive from New York and two hours from Boston, both properties are easily accessed by air and rail.
Close enough to be convenient, but secluded enough to provide an escape from everyday pressures and distractions.

WATCH HILL

THE VILLAGES OF WATCH HILL AND WEEKAPAUG

VILLAGE OF WATCH HILL The 1856 Lighthouse shapes the skyline; inviting streets are lined with boutiques and galleries, antique shops and restaurants. The famed Flying Horse Carousel is the oldest continuously operating carousel in the country; the hand-carved horses have leather saddles and vibrant eyes, and riders reach for a brass ring in hopes of winning another ride. Ocean air and sunlight billow through scenic parks, and fleets of sailboats nod in the bay. Walking from the Ocean House into Watch Hill for homemade ice cream is a rite of passage for the young and the young at heart.

WEEKAPAUG

VILLAGE OF WEEKAPAUG Situated on the outskirts of Westerly, Rhode Island, the Weekapaug Inn is located on the southern end of the Rhode Island coastline, just miles away from the Connecticut border. Take a drive or bike ride through charming towns and discover the area's unique treasures from small estate wineries and roadside farmers' markets to museums and family-friendly destinations.
